New Senior Underwriter joins Vero

13 September 2006: Vero Motor Fleet, one of the most specialised providers of motor fleet insurance in the Australian market has increased its team of specialists with the addition of Jason Malae as Senior Underwriter.

Working in the motor insurance industry for nearly ten years, including two years in the UK, Jason has extensive knowledge of both domestic and global markets.

Jason's career began in personal motor insurance and sales in Melbourne. He moved to Sydney in 2000 and worked in commercial and fleet underwriting in the corporate market. During this time, Jason worked extensively with local and international brokers.

Over the last two years, Jason has worked in various roles in the UK market including the role of National Senior Motor and Home Schemes Underwriter for Europe Assistance in the UK, Ireland, Scandinavian and the Baltic States markets.

Greg Steel, General Manager of Vero Motor Fleet, said Jason's appointment as Senior Underwriter complements the existing team of motor fleet specialists.

"With Jason joining our team, we have enhanced our offering and are pleased he can bring his technical underwriting expertise for various motor products to the table. He has established an excellent reputation amongst brokers, peers and colleagues", Mr Steel said.
