

Vero Corporate appoints National Liability Manager

Sydney, 20 June 2006: Vero Insurance Limited (Vero) continues to attract industry specialists and is pleased to announce that Darren Fennessy has joined Vero Corporate as National Liability Manager.

Darren has 20 years experience in both local and overseas corporate insurance markets in a range of senior liability underwriting roles. His comprehensive technical liability underwriting skills and extensive market profile will strengthen the expertise and specialisation of the existing Vero Corporate Liability team.

Darren O'Connell, General Manager of Vero Corporate said Darren's appointment as National Liability Manager will further enhance Vero Corporate's standing as an expert provider of tailored liability solutions in our chosen corporate market segments.

"The feedback from our customers has been very positive, confirming Darren's considerable reputation of liability expertise with local and international brokers," Mr O'Connell said.

"His appointment will have a positive impact on Vero Corporate's strategic and operational goals, as well as increase the depth of relationships with our brokers."
