

Vero Profin

Association Liability Insurance

Why office bearers need expert help

These days it's not just directors of large public companies who are exposed to personal liability for breaches of the duties they owe. Office bearers of not-for-profit organisations are also at risk. A simple act, error or omission can be enough to spark a claim against you or your association.

Here's where Vero Profin can help.

Because we're specialists in association liability insurance, we understand the exposures you face.

Designed specifically for associations, our policy covers office bearers' and association liability, protecting office bearers and your association against liability for errors and omissions.

Make sure you are insured with the experts. Talk to your broker today.

Vero Profin

Specialist and secure

Vero Profin is not just a specialist insurer. We're also safe and secure.

We're part of one of Australia's largest insurers with origins dating back to 1833.

How do I learn more about Vero Profin?

Talk to your broker. They can testify to our record and advise you on our range of products.

Alternatively, if you'd like to find out more about Vero Profin then you can visit our website at www.veroprofin.com.au

Learn more about Vero at www.vero.com.au

Why your broker recommends Vero Profin

We know how important it is that you receive quality, independent advice. That's why our products are only available through brokers and agents.

Your broker knows your business. And knows insurance.

They also appreciate:

- ▼ how dealing with experts cuts through the hassle
- ▼ that our claims service is second to none, and
- ▼ that we are backed by the size and scale of Vero.

Introducing Vero

Vero Insurance Limited ABN 48 005 297 807 ("Vero") is Australia's leading specialist insurer, comprising a number of expert insurance businesses including Vero Profin.

We provide quality specialised insurance and risk management products and services through intermediaries including brokers, corporate partners, agents and risk managers. With origins dating back to 1833, Vero has the knowledge and experience to adapt to changing market environments.

As a multi-specialist insurer operating in a number of niche markets, we offer the benefits of expert knowledge combined with the scale and security of a major blue chip insurer. This unique mix means that we can offer you expert and comprehensive risk coverage, and fast, efficient claims handling.

