VERO COMPLETES ITS INTERMEDIATED TEAM

Sydney, 30 July 2008 – Vero Insurance Limited (Vero) is pleased to announce the appointment of three new Executive Managers who will be joining the Commercial Insurance Intermediated Distribution team.

Anthony Day, Executive General Manager Intermediated Distribution, said he was excited to have these talented new members on his team.

“We now have the right people in the right places to work and partner with our brokers to deliver tailored and enhanced offerings to their customers,” Mr Day said.

Andrew Mair has been appointed to the newly created role of Executive Manager, Market Management, and commences on 1 September. With nearly twenty years’ experience in strategy, distribution and operations at Zurich Financial Services in Australia, New Zealand and the US, Andrew will use his strategic expertise to leverage the strength of the Suncorp Group to brokers.

Nicole Mann has been confirmed as Executive Manager Broker Relationships Northern Region, a position she has been acting in since November 2007. Nicole joined the company over ten years ago as Head of Distribution for Workers Compensation in NSW and has since worked in a variety of key relationship management and business development roles. Nicole played an integral role in designing Vero’s new broker service model providing all brokers with access to face to face servicing, and now leads a full team across NSW, QLD, ACT and NT.

Andrew Borden joins the team as Executive Manager Broker Relationships Southern Region, effective Monday 4 August. Andrew has been with the Suncorp group since 2002 working in key roles across distribution, operations and servicing and most recently led the distribution strategy within the Workers Compensation team. Andrew’s extensive leadership experience and operational knowledge of the general insurance market will complement and strengthen the senior management team within Intermediated Distribution.
