

The Vero Claims Promise

At Vero, we're committed to creating a positive customer experience during the moments that matter.

As part of our ongoing commitment to your success, we have enhanced our claims service.

It's now even easier for you to deliver positive customer experiences during the moments that matter, thanks to our improved claims-handling ability and supply chain partnerships.

We understand claim time can cause stress for customers. Our claims teams aim to settle straightforward claims immediately. If the claim is more complex, we'll work with the broker and the customer to make sure the claim is processed quickly and efficiently.

Either way, we will help your customers through the entire process.

We trust that these improvements to our claims service will continue to make it easier to do business with us.
