2. Duty of Disclosure

Before you enter into a contract of general insurance with an insurer you have a duty, under the Insurance Contracts Act, 1984 to disclose to the insurer every matter that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, is relevant to the insurer's decision whether to accept the risk of insurance and, if so, on what terms. You have the same duty to disclose those matters to the insurer before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate a contract of general insurance.

Your duty however does not require disclosure of any matter:

- ▼ that diminishes the risk to be undertaken by the insurer;
- ▼ that is of common knowledge;
- ▼ that your insurer knows, or in the ordinary course of his business ought to know;
- ▼ as to which compliance with your duty is waived by the insurer.

Non-disclosure

If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure, the insurer may be entitled to reduce his liability under the contract in respect of a claim or may cancel the contract. If your non-disclosure is fraudulent, the insurer may also have the option of avoiding the contract from its beginning.

Subrogation rights

If you enter into an agreement which excludes or limits your right to recover part or all of any loss or damage from another person, we will not cover for that loss or damage under the policy.

Third party interests

You must inform us of the interests of all third parties (e.g. financiers, lessors), to be covered under this insurance. We will protect their interests only if you have informed us of them and they are noted on the Schedule.

Note: All questions must be answered in full before this Proposal will be considered. Please print in capital letters and tick appropriate boxes to indicate your answers. Where the space given for any answer is insufficient, please provide it on a separate sheet.
